Appointment of Finance Director

Eric Reinbott has been offered conditional employment as the Township's New Director of Finance. Eric is currently the Finance and Operations Manager for the Department of Corrections at Bucks County, where he oversees the department's staff, finances and operations, including the annual departmental operating and capital budgets totaling over $42 million dollars. He has worked with the Corrections Department for over 9 years, with previous roles as Director of Finance & Administration and Accounting Assistant. Prior to his work at Bucks County, he worked as a partner and general manager at his family's restaurant for several years. Eric received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Lock Haven University and his master's in business administration from Wilmington University.

On a motion by Supervisor Osei, seconded by Supervisor Smith, the Board appointed Eric Reinbott as the Finance Director.
